SOCKS "KAUNAS INTERWAR MODERNISM"

You are about to wear an organic combination of nationality and modernism, the shapes and pattern of Kaunas Modernism architecture. The Interwar period (1918-1940) is one of the most significant periods in the history of Lithuanian architecture. Round windows, curvy corners, magical rhythm of parallel lines, national style and details are what Kaunas modernism is known for. It is also a living testament of history from the period of prosperity and modernisation. Walk proudly!
