"Paslėpti receptai" - a house of fresh pasta and salads, where all dishes are prepared only upon order - in an open kitchen visible to the customer. Fresh pasta is used in the preparation of the dishes, which are produced in the mini pasta factory installed in the restaurant. The customer is also given an exclusive opportunity not only to assemble a salad, but even to choose the method of preparation of meat or fish - grilled on coals, in an induction WOK device or matured.
